ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Rare 1980 architectural masterpiece by renowned architect John Weller, whose organic design philosophy created a home with large windows and sliders that frame serene views and dissolve boundaries between indoors and out. You are welcomed by an array of wood and stone tile in each living space, Honduran mahogany cabinetry and granite counters in the kitchen, exposed tongue and groove flooring seamlessly with two connecting terraces on each level spanning the rear of the home, private terraces off each room, a unique landscaping of mature oaks, palms, bamboo and fruit trees. The property also features a 2,000 SF workshop with electricity, fully maintained and the grounds have been meticulously restored. For discerning buyers who appreciate organic architectural style, this is a true sanctuary.
