

A photograph of a bright, empty interior space, likely a living or dining area. The room features white walls, white baseboards, and light-colored wood plank flooring. On the left, a white door is partially visible with a black door handle and a light switch. A recessed ceiling light fixture is visible above the door. In the center, an open doorway leads to another room. On the right, a large window with a white frame provides a view of the outdoors, showing a balcony railing and greenery. The overall atmosphere is clean and modern.
