ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

A very rare opportunity to lease a home that offers the condition and finishes of new construction. This immaculately maintained home is located in one of the Bay's most desirable and well-established neighborhoods (Whispering Pines). The main home has been completely renovated and offers a move-in-ready living experience. All appliances are brand new and have never been used. The property includes separate in-law quarters for additional use. The rental applies to the main residence only. Ideally situated near local parks, shopping, and dining, with convenient access to major transportation. The surrounding area is known for its strong residential appeal, access to top rated schools, and proximity to recreational activities while preserving a peaceful residential environment. A rare opportunity to lease a pristine, turnkey home in a highly sought-after location.
