ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Beautiful ranch-style home featuring 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms in the Redlands, situated on a corner lot within an exclusive location. Built in 2001, the residence boasts high ceilings and an open floor plan; thanks to its structural design, the living space can be easily expanded in any area. All entryways are protected by impact-resistant glass and/or hurricane shutters. Outdoors, a metal perimeter fence and three spacious electric gates ensure privacy and facilitate access. A fully modified shipping container, located to the side of the property, houses a bathroom and a space dedicated to relaxation or recreation, while a second container has been outfitted for storage; both serve as excellent complements to the main residence. Enjoy the existing fruit trees including avocado and mango while the property's location in the Redlands allows for both agricultural use and the raising or keeping of animals. This home will not disappoint. Come and enjoy your very own oasis!
