ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

A masterfully reimagined Spanish Mediterranean compound where timeless architecture meets bespoke modern design. Set on a 3-acre lot, featuring a 3-bath main home and a detached two-story guest house with 569 SF of living area. The main level, redesigned by Miami-based architect, is bright and entertaining. A built-in dining banquette anchors the space, flowing into a chef's kitchen with an oversized island and professional-grade fixtures throughout, including Toto toilets. The detached guest house includes its own kitchen, living area, full bath, and private bedroom and spa, creating a private, resort-style setting with fully gated grounds. Located on a quiet tree-lined street in El Portal, the property is a true gem. Designer furnishings are available for purchase, offering a turnkey option if desired.
