ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

This is a unique chance to own a property being sold at land value in the highly sought-after Schenley Park area. This gem is located near the University of Miami, Coral Gables, South Miami, Coconut Grove, and the University of Miami. The home, renovated with new insulation, and a new A/C unit. Custom closet doors, multiple French doors, and recessed lighting add to the charm and comfort. This property is on one of the few larger lots in the area, offering a myriad of possibilities. You could expand the current home up to three times its size or create an outdoor living area with ample space for a pool, deck, and any amenities you desire. Best of all, there are no monthly HOA fees. This property is an excellent investment on an expansive lot.
